IMPRESSION

Our experience with TMEG has been nothing short of excellent. Their staff, service, and overall ease of the working relationship has been wonderful. We can relax and take a back-seat on planning because we know they're there to take care of every need, small or large. They're very professional and organized, and the team is so lovely to work with. We look forward to it every year!

It was a wonderful experience working with the TMEG team in Las Vegas. They were able to propose a variety of different entertainment options, based on our needs. Once decisions were made, the contract process was simple. For planning and onsite roles, TMEG handled everything with the performers, audio visual and venue management. We really appreciated being able to step aside and feel confident that all of the logistics were being handled. The band selected was excellent and ultimately fit all of our needs!
